South Africa is a country that offers a diverse experience from wine tasting, sightseeing of wild life and visiting beautiful landscapes to immersion of its rich culture! Be prepare to be impressed by South African's hospitality, generosity and above all the sheer beauty of the landscape.

Enjoy a breath-taking and fun-filled 14-day journey of the Cape of Good Hope. We promise that you will not be disappointed.

Day 1

Arrival at Cape Town International Airport – Transfer to At Winkfield House in Somerset West

Welcome drinks enjoyed on the veranda with stunning sea views whilst you get to know the other touring guests

Dinner will be held at La Pineta in Stellenbosch www.forest44.co.za

Day 2 Paarl

Departure at 9:00 am

The name Paarl is Afrikaans and means pearl which originates from the Paarl Rock glimmering with sunlight in the morning dew. Paarl is one of the oldest settlements in the hinterland of Cape Town and it is situated on the shore of the Bergriver.

In Paarl, we visit the cellars of the biggest South African vintners' cooperative (KWV), which exports its products to 40 countries by now, the Taal Monument dedicated to the Afrikaans language, the family estate Fairview which is far-famed not only for its wines but also for its cheese production and the Drakenstein lion park. Dinner will be held at Henri's Restaurant in Somerset West

Day 3 Franschhoek

Departure at 9:00 am

Franschhoek means "French corner", roughly outlining the town's captivating position at the east end of Drakenstein valley. Thanks to the many surrounding vineyards and orchards, Franschhoek is a small opulent town situated in a beautiful and sheltered position in the Franschhoek valley.

In Franschhoek, we visit the +300 years old winery of Boschendal, which is one of the biggest and noblest vineyards of the country; the Huguenot Monument is a reminder of the Huguenots expulsion from their European homeland; the crocodile farm Le Bonheur, and the Motor Museum displaying a unique and exiting collection of cars over more than 100 years. On the way back to At Winkfield House, we drive over the beautiful Franschhoek pass.

Dinner will be held at Stephanie's Place in Somerset West

Day 4 Hermanus

Departure at 8:00 am

Hermanus is a small fishermen's village especially known for whales coming to the bay in order to calve every year between August and October. The colossi of the sea can be admired from several observation points and they come sometimes up to 50 meters close to the shore.

In Hermanus, we visit Old Harbour offering a picturesque scene with the small fisher boats lying on dry ground during low tide; the penguin colony inhabiting Stony Point at Betty's Bay, and finally the marvellous natural beaches of Betty's Bay. The way back to Somerset West goes via the breath-taking coastal road "Clarence Drive" with massive mountains towering on the left and an open view on the wide ocean on the right.

Dinner will be held at Avontuur www.avontuurestate.co.za

Day 5 Cape Town and Table Mountain

Departure at 8:30 am

Today, we travel by cable car up the 1086-meter-high Table Mountain (depending on the weather conditions). The cable car provides a 360° view of Cape Town. Afterwards, we shop at the central Greenmarket Square which is an interesting market for arts and crafts. However, decent bargaining skills are required since tourists are likely to be short-changed. Furthermore, we visit Kirstenbosch, a botanic garden spreading over 600 ha from an altitude of 100 to 1000 meters that provides an impressive and very extensive insight into the fantastic variety of South Africa's flora. Next, we approach the residential area Bo-Kaap which is shaped by minarets and houses in pastel colours developed in the 18th century. This area is predominantly inhabited by Cap Malays who are descendants of former slaves from Asia.

Dinner will be held at Cucina Di Giovanni's in Somerset West

Day 6 Aquila Private Game Reserve

Departure at 6:00 am

Your Big-5-experience awaits! Aquila offers you the unique opportunity to see lions, rhinos, buffalos, elephants and leopards from up close. The beautiful flora and fauna in the reserve will certainly rounds off your day to a complete wildlife experience. www.aquilasafari.com

Welcoming drink – plentiful breakfast buffet at Aquila – 2.5-hour- drive through the game reserve – lunch – subsequent relaxation at the pool possible

Return to Somerset West at 5.30 pm

Dinner will be held at Erinvale Hotel in Somerset West

Day 7 Stellenbosch

Departure at 9:30 am

The university town Stellenbosch is the second oldest town of South Africa and it is famous for its richness of historic building stock. Oom Samie Se Winkel is a Victorian shop which is more than a 100 years old. Here, between junk and kitsch, you may find old post cards, antiques, garments, selected wines, African masks, historic prints and much more. You will also have an opportunity look at Stellenryck Wine Museum in Drop Street. There are exhibited devices used for winegrowing and one can learn something about the history of wine production in the Cape region. Afterwards, we will enjoy wine tasting at Kleine Zalze vineyard.

Dinner will be held at Longridge Restaurant in Stellenbosch www.longridge.co.za

Day 8 Blauwklippen Market

Departure at 11:00 am

Today we drive to Stellenbosch and visit Blaauwklippen winery with its amazing market that takes place every Sunday. The market is a good opportunity to buy one or two handcrafted souvenirs for the family. Of course, sustenance is also provided. Numerous market stalls in the shade of old trees offer a wide choice and various musicians care for an enjoyable atmosphere.

Dinner will be held at Ocean 8 Seafood Restaurant in Somerset West

Day 9 Cape Peninsula

Departure at 8:00 am

During our Cape Peninsula tour we visit the colourful beach houses of St. James and Muizenberg, the boulders penguin colony in the gorgeous fisher village Simon's Town and the Cape of Good Hope as well as Cape Point. Thereafter, we take the world-famous Chapman's Peak Drive, one of the world's most beautiful panorama routes and pass the 12 Apostles. This is the name of the mountain chain reaching from the plateau of Table Mountain in direction south west along the Atlantic coast until Hout Bay. Hout Bay is a picturesque, small fishermen and tourist village situated in the identically named bay. After having left Hout Bay, we continue our journey to Camps Bay. The waterside promenade of Camps Bay is lined by shops and restaurants. With the palm-lined promenade, the white sandy beach and majestic mountains in the background, Camps Bay has become one of the most popular holiday destinations in the cape region. From here, we will drive back to At Winkfield House only after you enjoyed the magnificent sunset during a delicious meal.

Day 10 Somerset West

Departure at 9:00 am

Our starting point in Somerset West is the vineyard of Lourensford. The one or other director from Hollywood has already used this gorgeous winery as set for a film. In the 18th century, Lourensford was part of the Vergelegen vineyard which later was separated into four smaller farms. Subsequently we will visit also the state winery Vergelegen whose beautiful buildings and gardens are a must-see for everybody. Many prominent personalities such as Nelson Mandela, Queen Elizabeth II and Bill Clinton have visited Vergelegen because of the historic meaning and the unrivalled beauty and location. Afterwards, we have a look at the Helderberg Nature Reserve, a paradise for nature lovers and the Cheetah Outreach where you can regard majestic cheetahs at close range. The Cheetah Outreach is a project contributing to protection of cheetahs in the wild.

Dinner will be held at 96 Winery Road Restaurant in Stellenbosch www.96wineryroad.co.za

Day 11 Cape Town

Departure at 8:30 am

Company's Garden is the former garden area of the Dutch East India Company. Van Riebeeck cultivated fruit and vegetable here. A part of the area was transformed into a botanic garden. Afterwards, we go to Long Street with its wonderful renovated Victorian houses and wrought iron balcony rails. Here are many rag and antiquity shops as well as restaurants, edgy cafés and pubs. Then, we go to the Victoria and Alfred Waterfront which has become one of the main attractions of South Africa since – despite its 270 shops, more than 50 restaurants and snack stalls, 10 pubs, 7 hotels, 11 cinemas and 6 museums – it still has the flair of a harbour promenade.

Dinner will be held at De Cameron Restaurant in Stellenbosch

Day 12 Canal Walk

Departure at 8:30 am

“Canal Walk” with hundreds of shops, huge halls, arcades and also countless fast food restaurants is currently the biggest mall of Africa. Here, customers are tempted to stay the whole day and to empty their wallets. Take your time for this shopping paradise which is not inferior to an American mega mall.

Dinner will be held at Ben`s on the Beach Restaurant

Day 13 Cape Agulhas

Departure at 7:30 am

Cape Agulhas and not the Cape of Good Hope, as it is often assumed, is the southernmost spot of the African continent. Cape Agulhas marks the geographic border between the Atlantic and the Indian Ocean. Afterwards, we visit the De Hoop Nature Reserve. It is part of the Cape Floral and so it ranks among UNESCO World Heritage since 2004. It is situated at a coastal area with extensive white sand dunes in the western part and rocky bays framed by cliffs in the eastern part.

Dinner will be held at De Brasserie www.debrasserie.co.za
